

WHAT YOU NEED TO HEAR

Best Practices in Hearing Conservation

Hearing Conservation Specialist Ben Elsey, shares practical information on noise-induced hearing loss, and what you need to do to implement an effective hearing conservation program. Also including VeriPRO & QuietDose.

TOPICS INCLUDE:

Hearing Seminar:

- Basic Hearing Conservation
- Noise-induced Hearing Loss
- Selection of fitting posters and fitting tips
- The Australian & New Zealand Class & SLC<sub>80</sub> system
- Hearing protection ratings and evaluating their effectiveness.
- Audio demonstrations of hearing protection and over protection.
- Motivating employees in the use of hearing protection devices.

VeriPRO / QuietDose Seminar:

- VeriPRO and QuietDose are a simple, effective and portable way to implement better Hearing Conservation practices in any workplace.

Registration Form:

Please complete all sections & fax this form back:

Name: .....

Company: .....

Address: .....

Role: .....

Phone: .....

E-mail: .....

Limited seats available. Book quickly to reserve your hearing conservation pack for collection on the day.

ABOUT BEN ELSEY

Ben Elsey is the Hearing Conservation Specialist at Sperian in Melbourne and works across Australia and New Zealand spreading the hearing conservation message. He has a Bachelor of Speech Pathology from Flinders University in South Australia, specialising in Aural Rehabilitation. Prior joining Sperian, he has worked in Melbourne hospitals and private practice providing rehabilitative and support services for individuals with hearing loss for five years.

SCHEDULE

Date: Fri, 10th Sep 2010
Starts: 8.30am
Finishes: 11am

Please arrive by 8:15am

Morning Tea will be provided

LOCATION:

Port Kembla Golf Club, Golf Pl
Primbee, NSW 2502
(02) 4274 1159

CONTACT:

James Moule
Mobile: 0419 589 130
Fax: 1300 362 491
Email: jmoule@sperian.com

RSVP: By 3rd Sep 2010

Please email forms back to the contact address above.